

PREFACE

The first edition of subclasses KJ-KKZ, Law of Europe, was published in 1988. A 2000 edition cumulated additions and changes that were made during the period 1988-2000, followed by a 2008 edition. This 2016 cumulates additions and changes made since the publication of the 2015 edition.

Classification numbers or spans of numbers that appear in parentheses are formerly valid numbers that are now obsolete. Numbers or spans that appear in angle brackets are optional numbers that have never been used at the Library of Congress but are provided for other libraries that wish to use them. In most cases, a parenthesized or angle-bracketed number is accompanied by a "see" reference directing the user to the actual number that the Library of Congress currently uses, or a note explaining Library of Congress practice.

Access to the online version of the full Library of Congress Classification is available on the World Wide Web by subscription to Classification Web. Details about ordering and pricing may be obtained from the Cataloging Distribution Service at

New or revised numbers and captions are added to the LC Classification schedules as a result of development proposals made by the cataloging staff of the Library of Congress and cooperating institutions. Upon approval of these proposals by the editorial meeting of the Policy and Standards Division, new classification records are created or existing records are revised in the master classification database. Lists of newly approved or revised classification numbers and captions are posted on the World Wide Web at

<<http://www.loc.gov/aba/cataloging/classification/weeklylists/>>

Jolande Goldberg, law classification specialist in the Policy and Standards Division, and Libby Dechman, senior cataloging policy specialist, are responsible for coordinating the overall intellectual and editorial content of class K and its various subclasses. Kent Griffiths and Ethel Tillman, assistant editors, create new classification records and their associated index terms, and maintain the master database.

This edition of KJ-KKZ must be used in conjunction with the separately issued K Tables: Form Division Tables for Law, available for download at

This classification schedule includes references to form division tables within the range K1 to K24, which are found only in that file.
